Young Epilepsy Section (YES) Networking & Cocktail Party

Asian Oceanian Epilepsy Congress 2018

Networking Cocktail Party for the Young Epilepsy Section of the ILAE, AEOC Bali 2018

All junior or early career participants of the AOEC (<40 yrs) are invited to join us for a casual evening of networking, socializing, and fun, at a beautiful ocean-side cocktail party.

Your ticket (USD$29) can be purchased when you register for the conference, or by adding it to your registration by emailing registration@epilepsycongress.org. It includes a selection of canapés (including halal and vegetarian), as well as a limited bar featuring cocktails, beer, wine, juice, and soft drink - first-come-first-served until tab expires.

Friday 29 June 2018, 8:00pm-11:30pm

Tree Bar, Maya Sanur Resort, Bali

For further information contact YES delegate Genevieve Rayner at raynerg@unimelb.edu.au or Gus Egan of the conference organization at gus@epilepsycongress.org
